The Monthly Parish Newsletter of SAINT MARK'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

APRIL 2011 • ISSUE 149

Our series devoted to Saint Mark's staff (both volunteer and stipendiary) resumes this month with Associate Rector Bruce Smith. While we are blessed to have multiple clergy on staff, Bruce is the only other ordained person that is compensated through the parish budget.

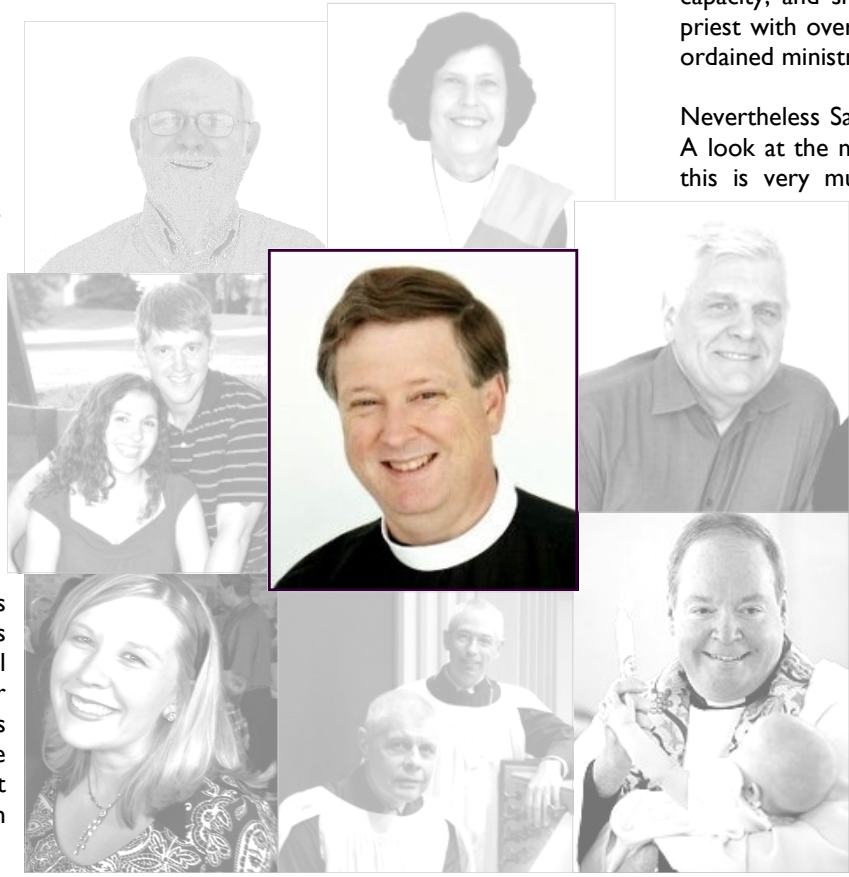

In some congregations the responsibilities of the associate rector bear a remarkable resemblance to all the areas of parish life that the rector doesn't like to do! At Saint Mark's, however, we really try to find those areas of parish life which are most suited to the gifts and interests of each individual (to the extent possible).

One of the most obvious differences between our Rector and Associate Rector is that one of them is an introvert and one is an extrovert—can you guess which is which? This means that Bruce has special responsibility for new member ministry, following our guests and visitors, the welcome brunches and other areas that make introverts want to run and hide!

Bruce also brings his considerable "people skills" to the area of pastoral care, and makes numerous calls to people experiencing an illness or crisis, as well as visiting many of our shut-in or home-bound parishioners. He has primary responsibility for celebrating the Eucharist at First Community Village each month, and shares with the Rector services at Friendship Village.

After many years in the corporate world, Bruce is also a natural organizer. He gives careful attention to scheduling, the appropriate licensing by the Diocese of our liturgical ministers, and how we present the procedures of church life (such as Baptismal preparation) to the congregation and public. He has been wonderful in adapting to some of the changes made by the Rector in these areas at Saint Mark's (such as being more inclusive in our marriage and Baptismal policies, as well as on who receives communion and when).

A considerable portion of Bruce's role at Saint Mark's really looks a lot like that of the Rector. He celebrates the Holy Eucharist, preaches, baptizes, counsels, solemnizes marriages and presides over burial of the departed. At staff meetings, when there is no verger present, he even keeps his eye on the weekly lectionary and what is read when on Sunday morning.

For the last ten years the position of associate rector has been full-time (a record for Saint Mark's which has a history of difficulties when it comes to compensating two full-time clergy). Unfortunately in 2011 this position has had to become part-time. Even though giving is actually up in 2011, reserve funds which had been drawn on for the last five years to fill the full-time/part-time budget gap have been depleted.

We are blessed as a congregation that Bruce is willing to stay on in this part time capacity, and share with us the skills of a priest with over a decade of experience in ordained ministry.

Nevertheless Saint Mark's must be careful. A look at the membership statistics tell us this is very much a two full-time clergy congregation. As we go forward together, we do so with some very real challenges.

First, we must be fair both to the changed situation and to Bruce.

Second, we must be mindful of the Rector's blood pressure (pink face good, red face less good, purple face bad!).

Thirdly, we must look for creative ways to be helpful, get involved, step forward, and in the words of Florence Lee Tim Oi (the first woman ordained as priest in the Anglican Communion), say, "Here I am! Send me."

Finally, we need to remember that the clergy, the staff and indeed the church is supported by faithful, generous giving from the heart. For all of us to be here as the church when needed most, an ongoing investment must be made day by day.

May God continue bless our wonderful and talented staff—just as God has brought together this wonderful and talented congregation to be a part of the Body of Jesus Christ in Columbus, Ohio.

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

SAINT MARK'S DIRECTOR OF MUSIC GARY L. GARBER

The Toccata from Widor's Fifth Organ Symphony has become the traditional closing voluntary for our celebration of the Feast of the Resurrection. And it is hard to imagine an organ work whose jubilant spirit could more appropriately intone the Easter message.

Charles-Marie Widor was born in Lyon, to a family of organ builders, and studied music there with his father, François-Charles Widor, who was organist of Saint-François-de-Sales from 1838 to 1889. The great French organ builder Aristide Cavallé-Coll was a friend of the family, and arranged for young Charles to study in Brussels in 1863 with Jacques-Nicolas Lemmens for organ technique and François-Joseph Fétis, director of the Brussels Conservatoire, for composition. Afterward, Widor moved to Paris, where he would make his home for the rest of his life. At the age of 24 he was appointed assistant to Camille Saint-Saëns at the Church of the Madeleine.

In January 1870, thanks to the lobbying of Cavallé-Coll, Saint-Saëns, and Charles Gounod, the 25-year-old Widor was appointed "provisional" organist of St. Sulpice in Paris, the most prominent of the Paris organist positions. The five-manual organ at St. Sulpice was Cavallé-Coll's masterwork, and its spectacular capabilities proved an inspiration to Widor. His ten symphonies are a result. Despite the "provisional" nature of his appointment, which was never officially made permanent, Widor remained long at St. Sulpice. In his old age he was to quip that he had been "provisional organist" for 64 years. He was succeeded in 1934 by Michael's teacher, Marcel Dupré.

Widor's Fifth Organ Symphony was completed in 1879. The Toccata is the final movement. It will close our worship at the Great Vigil of Easter and at both Holy Eucharist celebrations on Easter morning.

Tour de H<sub>2</sub>O—Saturday, May 21

It's time once again for the Tour de H<sub>2</sub>O! Saint Mark's was a big part of this cycling fundraiser last year, and all who participated should be very proud of the new water wells that were constructed in two rural villages in a dry area of western Kenya. The second annual Tour de H<sub>2</sub>O is set for Saturday, May 21, 2011 at Battelle Darby Creek Metro Park in Columbus. Our goal is to raise funds to construct three much needed water wells for primary schools in western Kenya. In addition to route distances of 25 and 50 miles, this year's ride will feature a special 10 mile Children's Tour de H<sub>2</sub>O which will include a Metropark nature tour! To learn more about the work that Tour de H<sub>2</sub>O is supporting, please see Mark Baldwin and/or visit www.tourdeh2o.org. We hope you will consider supporting the 2011 Tour de H<sub>2</sub>O as a donor, rider or virtual rider! Your gift is helping us bring clean water to those who have none.

KEEPING CONNECTED TO ONE ANOTHER:

BRUCE'S SERMONS ON FACEBOOK:

The texts of sermons preached by Associate Rector Bruce Smith can be found on the "Saint Mark's Episcopal Church" Facebook page and are usually posted within a few days.

RETIREMENT COMMUNITY SERVICES:

The Holy Eucharist is celebrated on the second Thursday of each month at Friendship Village in Dublin. Bruce and Paul share responsibility for this ministry and we are often assisted by The Rev. John Sanders, a retired Episcopal priest and resident at Friendship Village. On the third Thursday of each month, Bruce celebrates the Holy Eucharist in the chapel at First Community Village. There are a number of Saint Mark's parishioners at each community and the services are open to anyone who wishes to attend. We gather at 11 a.m. for worship, which is followed by lunch.

LENTEN SCHOOL:

Several members of Saint Mark's have participated in this year's Deanery Lenten School held at St. Patrick's in Dublin on March 15, 22, 29 and April 5: Patti Blakey, Anice Ellis, The Rev. Michael Ellis, Mary Kirkey, The Rev. Bruce Smith, Marilyn Smith, The Rev. Susan Smith and Mary Jane Weals. The Rev. Bruce Smith will be celebrating the Holy Eucharist on Tuesday, April 5. The programs have begun at 6:30 p.m. with the Holy Eucharist, followed by a brief time of fellowship. Classes have been held each Tuesday from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

A SPECIAL DAY AT PROCTER:

Associate Rector Bruce Smith, chair of the Affirmative Aging Commission in our diocese, served as co-host at the annual meeting of the Society of Sts. Simeon and Anna. The event, which also included retired clergy and their spouses, was held at Procter Conference Center on Tuesday, March 22. The morning began with registrations and coffee, with just about 100 lay and clergy from all over the diocese. We gathered in Christ Chapel for the Holy Eucharist at which the Rev. Canon Karl Ruttan (who will be leading Saint Mark's Vestry retreat on April) was our celebrant and preacher. During the Prayers of the People we remembered all of the members of the society who had died in the past year, including Larry German from Saint Mark's. Immediately following the service, Bruce and the Rev. Nancy Hardin (past chair of the Commission) formally welcomed nine new members of the Society, highlighting their rich and varied ministries to their congregations and to the our diocese. Attending this event from Saint Mark's were Michael and Anice Ellis, Nancy Johnston and Bruce and Susan Smith.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Saint Mark's, a parish in the Diocese of Southern Ohio, held its first worship service September 9, 1951 in a converted Methodist Church in Grandview. Having achieved parish status in 1953, Saint Mark's broke ground for a parish hall the next year. Services were held in the parish hall from 1955 until our magnificent church was completed and dedicated in March 1958. The house next door was purchased and converted to become the All Saints Center, dedicated in August 1989. Renovations and the construction of the Eldred Johnston Parish Hall were completed in 2005.
